our offering

Mundial Consulting was founded in 2003 as an independent consultancy for both the public and private sector. The objective of the company is to provide advice on best value procurement, project management and commercial support activities.

The focus of the company lies first and foremost with understanding the client perspective and offering an objective solution to their business requirements. Effective research, professional management, clearly defined processes and bespoke evaluation form the backbone of all client relationships, ensuring that only the best service is delivered.

Much of the work undertaken by Mundial Consulting over the past two years has been dedicated to developing programmes that raise awareness of the link between the human factors associated with ICT projects and ultimately, the successful impact these can have.

By linking these two elements together Mundial Consulting has successfully managed a number of large implementation projects whilst actively engaging the user population to firmly embed and deliver the technology benefit.
